TEN MUST-HAVE EXPERIENCES IN SAN DIEGO

This guide will give you ideas for your next unforgettable journey!

Must-Have Experiences in San Diego

At Boise Travel Agent, LLC, we know that planning vacations can be time-consuming and frustrating.

Researching and booking everything from flights, hotels, and transportation, can take considerable time, and something can easily go astray, causing your vacation to be full of anxiety and disappointment.

It shouldn't be that way.

When we plan vacations for our clients, they feel relaxed knowing everything is handled. Our professional planning fee includes all research and arrangements allowing you to sit back and relax while we put together a vacation that is exactly what you want.

*I really hope to be the person that guides you in planning your luxury vacation
adventure, whether it is to Italy or another destination of your choice.*

Must-Have Experiences in San Diego

When we think of California, it's not uncommon to fill our heads with images of the Hollywood sign, celebrities, and the infamous traffic jams of Los Angeles; however, the city of angels isn't the only prime travel destination within the state.

San Diego has a rich history and a laidback style to match. Not only is it the birthplace of California, but it's also one of the first spots where Europeans stepped ashore on the entire west coast. Beyond its history, San Diego has a mass appeal that will allow everyone to find something within the city that they enjoy.

So to help jumpstart your next trip to San Diego, here are ten must-see places you can quickly cross off your bucket list!

Must-Have Experiences in San Diego

San Diego Beaches

You can't make a trip to California and not visit the beaches, and San Diego is no exception. The water is perfect for swimming, surfing, and lounging around reading a good book.

If you're looking for relaxation, San Diego has the beaches for you. Pacific Beach, La Jolla Shores Beach, and Sunset Cliffs, to name a few.

LEGOLAND California

Let your creativity and imagination run wild with the whole family. Take in the movies, interactive rides, and Lego designs that overtake this popular destination.

You can even try your hands at your own LEGO creations at any number of building activities.

Breweries

Brewery tours are always a hit for those 21+, and San Diego has its fair share of breweries to wet your whistle. With nearly 200 breweries in the area, there's always a fresh beer that you've probably never tried before.

Lajolla Underwater Park

This nearly 6,000-acre underwater park contains various habitats such as kelp beds, sand flats, and rocky reefs. The waves are calm and gentle enough to snorkel below the water's surface for a day of swimming with sea creatures and exploring the surrounding sea caves.

Mission Bay

Mission Bay is another great locale for water sports. Not only are there boat rentals, paddle boarding, and other leisure activities, but there are also trails for walking and hiking and a camping area to set up camp over a long weekend.

Annual San Diego Events

Like most major cities, San Diego hosts various one day and weekend-long events that occur annually. These include things such as the San Diego County Fair, Comic-Con, as well as the Padres Major League Baseball Season.

Even if you're not attending these events, you may want to plan accordingly because of increases in traffic and travel accommodations being few and far between.
